

Republican Budget Would Be Devastating for New York Women

Senate Democrats have introduced a budget that cuts wasteful spending, invests in what the economy needs to grow, and protects programs critical to women across the country. Meanwhile, Republicans have again introduced a budget that would take an enormous toll on the nation's women, cutting the services they rely on for their health and the health of their children.

2,352 fewer New York women will be screened for cancer. The Republican budget would cut funding for the National Breast and Cervical Cancer Early Detection Program, which helps low-income, uninsured, or underinsured women gain access to diagnostic services like clinical breast examinations, mammograms, pap tests, and pelvic examinations. The deep cuts in the Republican budget could result in New York receiving $592,483 less funding. 25,986 fewer children will receive life-saving vaccinations. Grants for childhood immunizations help to purchase and distribute vaccines for poor and uninsured children. The Republican budget could cut $1,775,339 in funding for life-saving vaccinations in New York. Reproductive health programs in New York could be cut by $2,828,730. The Republican budget could cut $2,828,730 in services funding for the Title X family planning program in New York, which provides access to contraceptive supplies, reproductive health information and counseling, breast and pelvic examinations, breast and cervical cancer screening, STD and HIV prevention education, and pregnancy counseling to 332,465 women in 2011 alone. Over 2,529,000 women in New York will lose access to health benefits. The Republican budget repeals the Affordable Care Act, eliminating health insurance coverage and new benefits for millions of Americans and jeopardizing their access to stable, secure, affordable care. 2,529,000 women and 1,609,000 children in New York would have a lifetime limit on their coverage under the Republican budget. 2,360,599 fewer women and children will have access to maternal and child health services in New York. The Maternal and Child Health Block Grant program helps states provide critical maternal and child health services, including prenatal care, well child services, and other services through clinics, home visits, and school-based health programs. The Republican budget would cut $7.3 million in funding from New York, resulting in 2,360,599 fewer women and children served.
